

Internet Site Privacy Policy

Time Out Youth places a high priority on protecting your privacy. This privacy policy explains what types of information is collected by our website and how this information is used.

Personal Information

Time Out Youth does not collect any personal information unless you choose to provide such information by way of email or online means including requests for information, applications, or when making online financial contributions. Personal information obtained via the web will not be sold, rented, leased or traded to third parties.

Data Collected

When you request information or submit an inquiry, we collect your name and contact information. When you make a financial contribution online, we collect your name, contact information and standard credit card data through a third party vendor, Network for Good (www.networkforgood.org). Network for Good uses industry-leading Secure Sockets Layer (SSL) technology to keep your personal information as secure as possible.

Cookies

Our website does not use cookies to track a user's session. However, you can reject cookies by instructing your web browser accordingly.

Security

Time Out Youth is committed to ensuring the security of your information. We have put in place appropriate physical, electronic and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect.
